Agenda: EDCTP-AIGHD Special Session at the Virtual Global Forum on TB Vaccines, 20 – 22 April 2021

Special Session: Accelerating TB vaccine research and development: Launch of a Global Roadmap

Tuesday, 20 April 2021 (18:00-19:30 CEST)

Registration link: https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_pbpKgGpRR6ejZN1B-i0bxQ

Chairpersons:
Professor Mark Hatherill, South African Tuberculosis Vaccine Initiative (SATVI), South Africa
Dr Matteo Zignol, Global TB Programme, World Health Organisation

Time (CEST)	Agenda item	Speaker(s)
18:00 – 18:05	Welcome, opening remarks & introduction from the chairpersons	• Mark Hatherill, South African Tuberculosis Vaccine Initiative (SATVI), South Africa • Matteo Zignol, Global TB Programme, World Health Organisation
18:05 – 18:15	The TB Vaccine R&D Roadmap: actions and enabling considerations	• Frank Cobelens, Amsterdam Institute for Global Health and Development (AIGHD), Netherlands
18:15 - 18:35	Opportunities for TB Vaccine R&D	• Willem Hanekom, Africa Health Research Institute (AHRI), South Africa
18:35 – 18:45	A community perspective on the TB Vaccine R&D Roadmap	• Blessina Kumar, Global Coalition of TB Activists (GCTA)
18:45 – 18:50	Q&A	All
18:50 – 19:20	Feedback from panel	• Videlis Nduba, Kenya Medical Research Institute (KEMRI), Kenya • Ann Ginsberg, Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation • Brigitte Giersing, Immunization, Vaccines and Biologicals (IVB), World Health Organisation

		• Rajinder Suri, Developing Countries Vaccine Manufacturers Network (DCVMN) • Agnès Saint-Raymond, European Medicines Agency (EMA)
19:20 – 19:25	Q&A and feedback from participants	All
19:25 – 19:30	Next steps & closing remarks	• Michael Makanga, European & Developing Countries Clinical Trials Partnership (EDCTP)